

CODE OF CONDUCT POLICY

We believe in maintaining an inclusive and welcoming environment and workplace that motivates and facilitates personal growth and development for staff and educators. The values that underpin our work ethic include equality, respect, integrity, and responsibility. Our OSHC Service is committed to adhere to the ECA Code of Ethics (2016) which is based on the principles of the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child (1991) and provides a framework for the reflection about the ethical responsibilities of early childhood professionals.

Our Out of School Hours Care Service is committed to creating and maintaining an environment that promotes the safety of all children and embeds the National Principles for Child Safe Organisations. All staff and volunteers are responsible for promoting a culture of safety and wellbeing to minimise the risk of child abuse or harm to children whilst promoting children’s sense of security and belonging.

- model and provide guidance to educators and staff to ensure compliance with a zero tolerance of racism within the OSHC Service.

REPORTING A BREACH IN THE CODE OF CONDUCT

Our Service aims to foster a culture of transparency and accountability while supporting employees to report any reasonable suspicion of reportable matters of improper, illegal or misconduct within the service to management including, but not limited to:

- breaches of the Service code of conduct or service policies

- breaches of Education and Care Services National Law or Regulations
- breaches of legislation or law
- criminal activity
- corruption
- conduct that poses a danger or harm to any person/s
- harassment or discrimination
- improper or misleading financial practices

Our OSHC Service will implement protective practices to ensure employees identity is not compromised or disclosed, where applicable, following a report of a reportable matter including storage of documents in a secure and confidential manner and ensuring access to confidential documents is restricted to authorised personnel only. Once a report has been made the matter may be investigated through a formal investigation.

- all employees are required by law to undergo a Working with Children Check (WWCC) which is verified by the employer to ensure it is valid and current
- if employees become aware of a serious crime committed by another employee, they are required to report it to management as per the Reportable Conduct Scheme
- as mandatory reporters, all employees, students and volunteers must report possible risk of harm to children or young persons to management and/or Child Protection authority
- employees will report any concerns they may have about inappropriate actions of any other employee that involves children or young people to the approved provider /management as per the Reportable Conduct Scheme
- the approved provider/management will report any allegations or child related misconduct as per their legislative requirements (this may include reporting the matter to the Police, Department of Communities and Justice and the Office of the Children’s Guardian in NSW).

MANAGING CONFLICT IN THE WORKPLACE

MANAGEMENT WILL:

- adhere to the Dealing with Complaints Policy
- remain objective and impartial when managing conflict in the workplace
- be responsive and address a possible breach of the code of conduct by any employee as soon as they are aware of the breach
- investigate all allegations which may result in remedial action, or disciplinary action ranging from a caution to dismissal

- consider all relevant facts and make decisions or take actions fairly, ethically, consistently, and with transparency. If they are uncertain about the appropriateness of a decision or action they will consider:
 - whether the decision or conduct is lawful
 - whether the decision or conduct is consistent with Service policies and objectives
 - whether there will be an actual, potential, or perceived conflict of interest involving obligations that could influence the business relationship or conflict with business duties.

ADHERING TO SERVICE CONFIDENTIALITY

- Unless authorised to do so by legislation, employees must not disclose or use any confidential information without appropriate approval (including written approval as required)
- Lawful sharing of information with other parties must be to promote the wellbeing or safety of children and adhere to guidelines under Child and Family Information Sharing Schemes
- All employees are to ensure that confidential information is not accessed by unauthorised people.
- Employees will adhere to the Service's Privacy and Confidentiality Policy.

BABYSITTING

- Our OSHC service does not provide babysitting services outside normal operating hours
- Should employees undertake private babysitting arrangements with families, our Service takes no responsibility for any private arrangements between staff members and the family. However, we do expect staff to inform the Service if they are babysitting or caring for a child that attends the Service.
- Should employees undertake private babysitting arrangements we require employees and families to sign a copy of the Code of Conduct and complete a 'Out of Hours Babysitting Agreement Waiver' which will be kept in the child and staff member's file (see Out of Hours Babysitting Policy)
- All staff are bound by contract to the Service's Privacy and Confidentiality Policy, where they are unable to discuss any issues regarding the Service, other staff members, parents/families, or other children.

RECORD KEEPING

- Employees and Management will maintain full, accurate, and honest records as required by Education and Care Services National regulations.
- The approved provider has a responsibility to ensure that employees comply with their record keeping obligation outlined in the Record Keeping and Retention Policy
- Employees must not destroy records without permission from management
- Records must be retained and stored securely as per our Record Keeping and Retention Policy

DUTY OF CARE

- The approved provider, management and employees have a responsibility to take reasonable care for the health and safety of themselves and others at the workplace to enable compliance with the work health and safety legislation outlined in the Work Health and Safety Policy
- Duty of Care relates to both physical and psychological wellbeing of individuals
- The approved provider, management and employees must provide adequate supervision of children at all times and ensure the health, safety and welfare of children and young people in their care. This includes taking all reasonable action to protect children and young people from risk of harm that can be reasonably predicted.

APPROPRIATE USE OF COMMUNICATION AND SOCIAL NETWORKING SITES

SOCIAL MEDIA

- As a Child Safe Organisation, our Service has the responsibility to ensure children and educators are protected from harm when they engage in with digital technology including social media
- Strict guidelines for the use of social media are outlined in our Social Media Policy
- The Service offers its current families and staff members a Facebook page as a communication tool. The administrator of the account is the Service's Nominated Supervisor.
- The Administrator controls the content on the page and ensures that the postings are relevant and respectful of the Service, the children, the staff, families, and greater community.
- Staff members who have a personal Facebook account are not permitted to post any negative comments relating to the Service, children, colleagues, or families. If they choose to 'like' the Service's page they have a responsibility to ensure that their profile picture is an appropriate representation of a school aged care educator. If it is not, we request that they do not 'like' the page.
- Staff members are to use their own personal discretion when adding a family of the Service as a 'friend' on Facebook. The Service does not recommend staff to add families of the Service as they will be seen still as a representative of the Service and held to the Service's Code of Conduct on all posts on their private 'wall' if families have access.
- Families are asked in our Social Media Policy to respect that staff may have a personal policy on adding families due to their professional philosophy and that the Service does not recommend staff to have families as friends on their private account.
- Staff members are not permitted to request the 'friendship' of families from the Service.

PERSONAL PHONE CALLS/MOBILE PHONES/SMART WATCHES

We are mindful that educators have a duty of care to ensure children are protected from potential risk of harm. It is imperative that all employees of the Service provide children with their full attention, ensuring supervision is maintained and remains on the children.

- Employees or staff are not authorised to use the Service's phones for personal reasons unless in the case of an emergency or with permission from management.
- no personal mobile phones are to be used, checked or brought on the floor during working hours.
- if it becomes apparent that employees are using their Smart watches to check and respond to messages during shifts, they will be asked to either leave them at home or place in a designated locker / secure location until the end of their shift.
- personal mobile phones and Smart watches may be used during shift breaks when employees are free from work and supervision duties. They are not to be used in general sight of children, unless a situation arises where there is an emergency.
- personal mobile phones are not to be used to take photos of children as this is a breach of children's privacy. (Service mobile phones or iPads may be used if it's for the purposes of 'observations' etc.)
- children are at no time to be given access to staff mobile phones
- no personal mail or deliveries should be directed to the Service unless prior approval has been granted by the nominated supervisor/management.
- Employees, are not to contact families or children of the Service for personal reasons.
- if, for personal reasons an employee needs to remain contactable from someone outside the Service they should ensure that the situation is explained to management and that the service's primary contact details are passed on to the persons/family outside the Service.

SERVICE EMAIL

- Email is to be used only for company usage, not for private communications
- Passwords and access privileges are strictly confidential and to be used only by the educator issued with that access, or persons delegated to know and use that access in the normal course of operation
- It is the responsibility of the authorised user to take fair and reasonable steps to ensure the passwords and other forms of access are held safe
- Employees are to be aware that their Service email account may be accessed by management at any time.

USE OF ALCOHOL, DRUGS AND TOBACCO

- Smoking or vaping is NOT permitted in or on surrounding areas of the OSHC Service.

- It is expected that the odour of cigarette smoke will not be detected on an employee's clothing. If an employee is found smoking/vaping on the premises, that employee's employment may be terminated. Our Service supports the Smoke Free Environment Act 2000. Our OSHC Service and its employees will follow all conditions outlined in this act.
- Our OSHC Service is bound by the Education and Care Services National Regulations. Alcohol, drugs, or other substance abuse by employees can have serious adverse effects on their own health and the safety of others. As such, all employees must not:
 - consume alcohol nor be under the influence of alcohol while working
 - use or possess illegal drugs at any workplace
 - drive a vehicle, having consumed alcohol or suffering from the effects of illegal substances, or
 - bring alcohol or any illegal drugs onto the premises.
- If a co-worker suspects a colleague to be affected by drugs or alcohol, they must inform the nominated supervisor immediately. No employee will be allowed to work under the influence of drugs or alcohol. (See: Tobacco, Drugs and Alcohol-Free Policy)
- Employees undergoing prescribed medical treatment with a controlled substance that may affect the safe performance of their duties are required to report this to the nominated supervisor. Consideration will be given as to whether the particular medication affects the person's capacity to provide education and care to children
- All issues pertaining to these matters shall be kept strictly confidential. A breach of this policy may initiate appropriate action including the termination of employment.

DRESS CODE

- All employees must adhere to our uniform/dress code supplied during induction including the display of their name badge whilst on shift.
- Enclosed shoes must be worn at all times (strictly no high heels, thongs, or wedges).
- Clothes must be suitable for free movement, active play, and messy play.
- No offensive logos or political statements are to be displayed on clothing.

PERSONAL HYGIENE

All employees are to adhere to the following standards:

- long hair is to be clean and neatly tied back: Ensure hair does not hang in your eyes
- makeup is to be light and natural

- fingernails are to be clean and well groomed
- nail polish (if worn) cannot be chipped
- employees will follow appropriate oral hygiene practices
- an appropriate deodorant/antiperspirant will be worn
- strong perfumes will not be worn as they may cause allergic reactions in children.

BREACH OF THE CODE OF CONDUCT

All employees are made fully aware that the following breaches of the Code of Conduct and role responsibilities may result in disciplinary action which may lead to termination of employment:

- reporting to work under the influence of alcohol or drugs
- refusal to complete required additional training
- possessing or selling drugs at the Service
- immoral, immature, or indecent conduct while at the Service
- inappropriate use of company equipment and/or resources
- refusing to work as reasonably directed
- possessing a dangerous weapon whilst at the Service
- bringing disrepute to the Service
- causing disruption or discontent in the relationship between a family and the Service
- disclosure of confidential information
- falsifying documentation
- associating with families without disclosing this information with management
- stealing, abusing, defacing, or destroying company property
- interfering with work schedules
- falsification of reports, documents, or wages information
- failure to report for work without notice
- walking off the job
- failure to follow policies and procedures
- vulgarity or disrespectful conduct to families, management or colleagues
- making or publishing false, vicious, or malicious statements about any employee of the Service, or the Service itself
- failure to hand in lost property (this is regarded as stealing): Lost property is to be handed to the nominated supervisor
- unable to maintain or hold a current Working With Children Check/Clearance [or state equivalent].

DISCIPLINARY ACTION

All staff members are made fully aware that continued abuse of the following may result in disciplinary action. All employees are made fully aware that continued abuse of the following may result in disciplinary action. These include, but are not limited to the following:

- unauthorised absence
- consistent or ongoing late arrivals and/or unauthorised extended breaks
- having personal visitors whilst on shift
- continued personal phone calls
- carrying a personal mobile phone whilst on shift
- using a personal mobile phone or device to take photographs of the children
- unauthorised distribution of Service resources or materials
- consistent or ongoing poor work standard
- carelessness in the performance of duties
- consistent or ongoing low level of enthusiasm
- lack of personal cleanliness and hygiene
- taking excessive breaks
- failure to report health, fire, or safety hazards
- repeated tardiness

CONTINUOUS IMPROVEMENT/REFLECTION

The Code of Conduct Policy will be evaluated and reviewed on an annual basis in conjunction with children, families, staff, educators and management.
